Hi Everyone,

What a wet week it has been!

This week I have been all over the locality as well as helping out colleagues. I have had almost 50 enquiries this week and this month is looking to be the busiest month for me so far!

What I've been up to this week

INSPECTIONS COMPLETED/UPCOMING

This week I have completed my B & C monthly inspections and Friday AM I will be completing my A Road inspection.

What's coming up & other news

Week Commencing 09/01/2023

Next week will be a week of clearing my enquiries that have come in this week and continue to come in over the weekend, I'm expecting a lot of blocked gullies and maybe even some trees down thanks to the wind!

This week also sees the return of the second page of my briefing showing what defects have been completed in your areas the past week!
